Transformed MoD homes to go on market

A NEW housing development will launch in Wiltshire following the renovation of a batch of former MoD homes.

Five former officer's houses at Marlborough Close in Devizes have been transformed into "sustainable retrofit" homes by developers Annington.

The firm is responsible for nearly 60,000 former military homes and will launch the refurbished estate during Easter weekend.

From Friday, March 29, the five four-bedroom houses will be on the market for prices starting at £565,000.

Annington says the homes have been carefully refurbished to become smarter and more efficient, with each boasting an EPC A rating.

Marketing manager Stacy Whitehead said: "Homes like these simply aren't available elsewhere - Marlborough Close is truly a unique offering in Devizes.

"Tucked away in an idyllic countryside setting, these homes are a peaceful retreat for buyers seeking a more sustainable way of life without compromising on modern comforts.

"These properties really must be seen to be appreciated, which is why we will be opening the doors to our thoughtfully-designed show home on the launch weekend.

"Visitors will be able to experience firsthand the lifestyle on offer at Marlborough Close."

The developers warned there has been "exceptionally high demand" for the properties, with nearly half of all pre-enquiries coming from homebuyers with an SN postcode.
