

Link to coverage: <https://uk.finance.yahoo.com/news/property-8-new-homes-to-help-you-on-to-the-property-ladder-064619520.html?guccounter=1>

Property: 8 new homes to help you on to the property ladder

Saving for a deposit when rents are so high is tough. But there is help available. Photo: Getty

The struggle is real for first-time buyers who are battling to save a deposit and afford a mortgage amidst soaring rents, high interest rates and the cost of living crisis. A new home could provide the answer, as some developments offer discounts, incentives, government-backed and other schemes aimed at helping people climb on to the property ladder. If you're hoping to secure your first home in the not-too-distant future, start your search here.

Windsor, Berkshire. Photo: Edward Hill

8. The Crescent, Windsor, Berkshire, from £465,000

These two and three-bedroom houses are refreshingly affordable for a town where the average property changes hands for over £709,000, according to Zoopla. Formerly MOD housing, they're been completely refurbished inside and out, featuring new cladding, rendering, windows, heating systems, upgraded insulation, contemporary kitchens and bathrooms, gardens and parking spaces. The town centre and Windsor Castle are in walking distance. From Annington and for sale through Hamptons.